306 11 Chandos, St Leonards

Be Blown Away By This Amazing Studio Plus Apartment

This light filled property is the size of a 1 bedroom apartment and with all the original architectural features as intended by Burley Katon Halliday makes this unit stand apart from its peers.

Located in the boutique Habitat building and only one of a hand full of north facing studios this property has instant appeal to astute investors.

Walking distance to restaurants, Crows Nest entertainment district , St Leonards train station and a major bus stop the position ensures that the property is in a desirable location with maximum appeal.

In "as new" condition this contemporary property features cool terrazzo Italian stone flooring, an innovative loggia , European appliances and ample storage space.

The building offers a prestige concierge service and gym facilities for discerning owner occupiers and demands high rental yields for investors.
