W1008 Central Park, Chippendale

Super-stylish city pad, within Sydney's Central Park

This apartment is the perfect urban pad for a design-conscious city-dweller. Every detail of the interior layout, the fittings and finishes, has been carefully considered for high function and high style, by Smart Design.

Apartment W1008 has a loggia room - more than a balcony, this highly flexible space extends your living room and is weather-protected so you can use it as a dining room, study or urban garden, as you choose.

The separate bedroom zone is spacious, and the detailing of the kitchen pod is superb, with an integrated fridge behind high-gloss joinery. Your laundry is intelligently integrated into the hallway pod, and additional storage is included in the basement level - perfect for a bicycle.

Unusually, your fridge and washer-dryer are supplied to ensure the highest standard of energy efficiency is achieved.
